

Dreams – Romantic Disorientation

For Immediate Release:

(La Jolla, CA) La Playa Gallery will open a new exhibition called “Dreams – Romantic Disorientation” featuring artists Tiffany Bociek, David B. Cuzick and Bk Kirwan on view from Friday, September 2, 2016 until Friday, October 21, 2016. The show will include works inspired by the complex images of dreams and our ability to decipher them.

Dreams of high interest establish a base of differentiation against optimistic and romantic dream orientations. Complexity, color and disorientation are a part of dream contextualization. In this show, the artists provide the opportunity to display imagery crossing the line of our waking reality with our sleeping reality. Bouts of chaos mixed with identified objects draw the viewer into the romantic world of dreams.

Come meet the artists whose purposeful visions are created on canvas. La Playa Gallery’s Opening Reception will be Friday, September 2, 2016, 5:00 - 8:00pm. Gallery hours are Monday - Friday 10:00 - 5:00pm. For additional information, please call (858) 454-6903.
